- ### Types of Permanent Life Insurance
- #### Whole Life
- Dates back to at least 1759
 - Guaranteed death benefit
 - Guaranteed cash values
 - Fixed annual premiums

Types of Permanent Life Insurance

Universal Life

- Introduced in the late 1970's (time of very high interest rates)
- Combination of term insurance and tax-deferred investment account
- Cash value not guaranteed
- Death benefit may vary
- Premium may vary

Types of Permanent Life Insurance

Variable Life

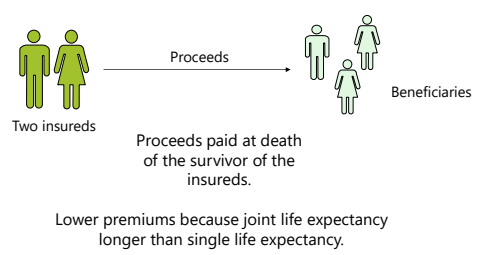

- Variation on whole life and universal life
 - VWL – still contains death benefits guarantees
 - VUL – more popular; no death benefit guarantee
- Portion of premium allocated to separate account
- Owner selects investments
- Treated as a security
- Greater risk

Variation: Second-to-Die Policy

Two insureds

Proceeds

Beneficiaries

Proceeds paid at death of the survivor of the insureds.

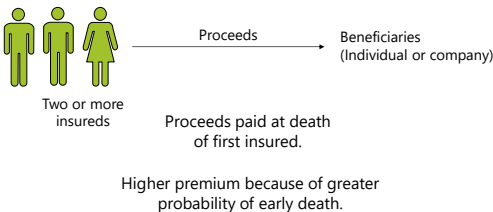

Lower premiums because joint life expectancy longer than single life expectancy.

17

PG Calc | Your Partner In Planned Giving Success

Variation: First-to-Die Policy

Two or more insureds

Proceeds

Beneficiaries (Individual or company)

Proceeds paid at death of first insured.

Higher premium because of greater probability of early death.

II. Ways to Give Life Insurance

Transfer Ownership of Paid-Up Permanent Life Insurance Policy

- Deduction: lesser of (1) the replacement value and (2) the adjusted cost basis
- Replacement value: current single-premium cost of purchasing equivalent policy. Practically, the cash surrender value (but could be larger)
- Adjusted cost basis: total premiums paid less withdrawals, dividends paid, outstanding loans, and mortality charge changes

Ways to Give Life Insurance

Transfer Ownership of Existing Permanent LI Policy (premiums still required)

Deduction: lesser of (1) "interpolated terminal reserve value" and (2) the adjusted cost basis

Interpolated terminal reserve value is

- cash value (the cash build-up) plus
- any prepaid premiums and/or expected dividends, less
- any outstanding loans

(It is approximately the cash surrender value.)

22

PG Calc | Your Partner In Planned Giving Success

Existing Policy (premiums required)

Premium Payments

- Deductible by donor ($ for $)
- Paid directly to charity – 60%/50%/30% rule applies
- Paid to insurance company – may be deemed "for the use of" and could be limited to 30%/20% of AGI

23

PG Calc | Your Partner In Planned Giving Success

Existing Policy (premiums required)

Face Value	$100,000
Interpolated terminal reserve value	$5,400
Adjusted cost basis	$7,500
Initial charitable deduction	$5,400
Annual charitable deduction for premium contributions	$2,500
Immediate value to charity	$5,400
Future proceeds if policy remains in force	$100,000

Ways to Give Life Insurance

Charitable Giving Rider

- 1-2% of face value
- Usually free of charge
- Require large policy – death benefit of $1M+

Give Policy Dividends

- Donor receives dividends and gives them to charity
- Support charity without increasing cash outlay

PG Calc | Your Partner In Planned Giving Success

Name Charity as Beneficiary of Commercial Annuity

- Deferred variable annuity – named beneficiary receives cash value at death
- Immediate payment annuity or the annuitization of a deferred variable annuity - often will have a minimum guarantee period
- Tax-wise way to give; proceeds subject to income tax if given to individual heirs

Question B

Why is it necessary to have a life insurance policy appraised when the replacement value or interpolated terminal reserve value can be obtained from the insurance company?

- Independent appraisal required if charitable deduction claimed will exceed $5,000.
 - ✓ Non-cash gift
 - ✓ PPA of 2006 excludes parties related to the transaction
- Donor must file Form 8283.
- Charity must file Form 8282 in case of disposition within three years.

Question C

If premiums are still owing, is it better for the donor to make premium payments directly to the insurance company, or to make contributions to the charity to cover the payments?

Advantages of contributions to charity:

1. Donor can contribute appreciated securities.
2. Larger deduction limit.
3. Charity can better monitor premium payments.

Disadvantages: More administrative responsibility; donor may be less diligent in their gifts to charity than in making payments to insurance company
